

Behaviour Policy

Rationale

Reviewed: 10.09.2025 | Next date for review: 01/09/2026

At Running Deer, we recognise that people from all backgrounds access the school, both as staff members and as students, and we believe that at our school there are 'No Outsiders' because we are all different and we are all equal. We draw strength from our diversity as a group and use this to ensure the best possible outcomes for all, recognising that people will have different strengths and different needs.

We are committed to a Trauma and Mental Health Informed ethos that maximises the protective factors of school, by creating an environment of safety that has strong, positive and supportive relationships between everyone at its heart. This requires staff and adults, who support the young people at Running Deer, to understand the impact of emotionally regulated and available adults, who can provide calmness and containment of young people, their parents/carers, or each other.

All staff are responsible for adhering to positive practice that promotes a student's ability to engage in, and access, their learning. This is based on the understanding that students best achieve, develop, and reach, their true potential when staff are fair, flexible, trustworthy, respectful, and model positive relationships.

This policy aims to set out a framework through which staff and students can promote and uphold high expectations of behaviour, nurture and repair relationships, and enable everyone to learn and develop.

Running Deer School knows that young people can reach their full potential given time, the right opportunity and the support they need.

Our values are based on respect.

- Respect for self.
- Respect for others.
- Respect for the environment.
- The right that everyone has the right to an education.

We strive to:

- Be ethical in everything we do.
- Be user led and transparent at all times.
- Promote inclusiveness.
- Make a positive difference to peoples' lives.

These are underpinned in the following articles UNICEF states the following as rights relevant to all children and therefore a must in our school:

The following rights are of equal importance to every child. Every child has the right to:

- Relax and play (Article 31)
- Freedom of expression (Article 13)
- Be safe from violence (Article 19)
- An education (Article 28)
- Protection of identity (Article 8)
- Sufficient standard of living (Article 27)
- Know their rights (Article 42)
- Health and health services (Article 24)

UN Convention on Rights of a Child (UNCRC) - UNICEF UK [24.09.25]

Any member of staff, pupil or visitor (including families) are agreeing to adhering to meeting these rights and working together in meeting these rights as soon as they begin to be working with, interacting or teaching any member of the Running Deer School community.

Positive Behaviour

At Running Deer School, we recognise that all behaviour is communication, and that negative behaviour communicates an unmet need. We aim to support students to understand their behaviour and the reasons behind it. All staff need to understand the students, their needs relating to attachment, trauma, or SEND, and need to maximise opportunities for students to achieve success and have positive outcomes.

We aim to work closely with students and their families in order to best meet their needs and to help them to manage their behaviour. These relationships are paramount and are reflected in our Relationships Policy.

To support long term behaviour change we deliver sessions that include, but are not restricted to:

- Art or Sand play therapy
- Biophilia (access to nature)
- Sensory regulation exercises ('sensory diet')
- Case worker/mentoring time
- Use of therapeutic language
- Board game club (principles based therapeutic interventions)
- Relaxation/Yoga/mindfulness

Positive behaviour management strategies we use include, but are not limited to:

- showing unconditional positive regard to students
- emphasizing positive behaviour and attitudes, and "catch them being good" (Rogers, 2002) in order to give feedback and praise.
- setting, monitoring and evaluating the impact of realistic achievable targets for students, referring to positive behaviour support plans where applicable.
- encouraging peers to seek and praise the good in others by giving opportunities to take on roles across the school e.g. showing students how to make a mallet, showing new students around etc.
- using a restorative approach to consider behaviour choices and repair relationships, using the restorative script.
- celebrating hard work, effort, and positive behaviour throughout the school day and in communication with families
- using individualised PSHE lessons, the Emotional Curriculum, and through our No Outsiders work, to teach students about understanding emotions, managing behaviour, risks, consequences, equality, etc.
- staff acting as emotionally available adult for the students

There is a delicacy between the rights and needs of the individual, and the rights of the wider school community to be protected from harm.

In these instances, the school will look to minimize the harm to the greatest number of students. On these rare and difficult occasions, the school may seek to terminate the placement of a student to protect the wider school community from harm. It may choose to do this rather than permanently exclude a student to ensure a more managed transition for the student. This will be decided by the Head of School with the support of the Board of Directors.

Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to:	Staff have the right to:
<ul> <li>Be treated with respect</li> <li>Be safe</li> <li>Learn</li> <li>Be listened to</li> <li>Achieve success</li> <li>Disruption free learning</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Be able to teach and support learning with hinderance</li> <li>Feel safe</li> <li>Be supported by colleagues</li> <li>Be listened to</li> </ul>
Students have the responsibility to:	Staff in school have the responsibility to:
<ul> <li>Be willing to learn</li> <li>Allow others to learn</li> <li>Cooperate with staff and peers</li> <li>Treat each other, and staff, with respect</li> <li>Try their best</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Enable all students to learn</li> <li>Create a positive environment in which students feel safe and able to learn</li> <li>Encourage, reinforce and celebrate positive behaviour</li> <li>Treat students with respect</li> </ul>

When possible, staff will be consistent between them about the behaviour standards expected for each student, which does not mean treating the students as the same. Our students have different needs, experiences and backgrounds, which will always be taken into account.

Parents and carers have the right to know how their child is doing in school, through daily 'journey logs', phone calls and other correspondence, official reports to parents/carers, and regular meetings with staff and other professionals.

Parents and carers have the responsibility to let school know if there has been a change in circumstances which might affect their child. They have the responsibility to support the school in upholding standards of positive behaviour, and to discuss any concerns as soon as they arise. Running Deer also expects parents to help uphold the behaviour policy.

The Board of Directors' legal responsibility is to make sure that the school has an effective Behaviour Policy in place and the Board monitors compliance with its implementation. The Board should also ensure that the policy is made available to parents and carers if requested and is on the school website. They will make sure the policy is reviewed in line with the review schedule or as new legislation/guidance emerges.

Rewards

Whilst rewards can be motivational for students, those who have insecure attachments, or who have experienced trauma, or have negative previous school experiences, may respond to rewards in unexpected ways. They might sabotage the reward or might feel they are not deserving of the reward, leading to insecurity and feelings of shame (Cooper, 2001). To this end, we believe that rewards should be individual, and negotiated with the student, to reward and reinforce positive behaviour rather than punish the negative (Kohn, 1999).

All staff are responsible and actively involved in rewarding positive behaviour, and achievements, success and positive behaviour both inside and outside school are celebrated.

Rewards used in the school are varied and reflect the individual student's needs. Informal rewards at Running Deer may include:

- Smiles, positive eye contact and gestures.
- Positive praise.
- Written comments in books.
- Phone calls, emails, sending photos, or other forms of communication with parents/carers.
- Displaying of good work.
- Additional responsibilities.
- Sharing good work and or behaviour with other professionals, including social workers, youth workers, etc.
- This list is not definitive, and individual expectations may be made.

Consequences

Students are encouraged and supported to make choices about their behaviour and take responsibility for their actions. Choices are guided by their responsibilities and will lead to positive or negative consequences according to their choice. Students will know the consequence of a sensible or inadvisable choice. Responsible choices will lead to positive consequences, whilst, if students choose to behave in an unacceptable manner there will be known negative consequences.

Consequences occur when necessary and as appropriate to the student, the circumstances and the behaviour that has taken place.

Examples of consequences at Running Deer include:

- Directly speaking to the student and remind them to follow the instruction given.
   Explain what they have chosen to do is not a good choice and why. Be clear about how they should be choosing to act. Explicitly tell or model to the student what they should be doing.
- Taking the student away from main camp, or to their safe space, or another chosen are of the woods. This not only closely supervises the student but also allows good behaviour to be modelled. It also means that the supervising adult can establish a positive conversation with the student and defuse the situation.

- Removal of other students if the situation is escalating, and/or the student's behaviour is becoming dangerous.
- Intervention from Senior staff
- Phone calls home to parents/carers
- This list in not definitive and individual expectations may be made.

Incidents will always be logged on our CPOMs system. Restorative conversations will always happen after an incident of negative behaviour.

(See separate policies including De-escalation, Physical Intervention and Restraint, and Searching, confiscation and Exclusions policy for serious incidents).

There are some behaviours which cannot be excused and will carry a mandatory response from the school, this is to protect the wider school community from harm, including emotional. These include

- Bullying
- Targeting individuals based on protected characteristics
- Significantly and persistently disrupting the learning of others
- Malicious use of technology which causes harm to others.
- Theft or malicious and targeted damage to personal property

In each instant, unless the severity judged by impact, dictates otherwise, the school will:

- Inform the person of their indiscretion
- Discuss the impact of those behaviours on all parties
- Have a meeting with the parents to discuss behaviours
- Ask the student to have a period away from school (fixed term exclusion)

Policies

This policy should be used alongside our other policies:

- Relationships Policy
- Anti-bullying policy
- De-escalation, physical intervention and restraint
- Equal Opportunities
- Equality and Diversity
- Searching, confiscation and Exclusions policy
- Safeguarding Policy

• SEND policy and information report.

Restorative Conversations/ Meetings

Facilitator guide and conference script - for acknowledged harm/accepted responsibility.

A key part of the Positive Behaviour Curriculum is in supporting pupils to repair relationships following incidents. Adults should use the following script, amended for age appropriateness.

Introductions

"Welcome, as you know my name is xx and I have been asked to facilitate this meeting. (Introduce participants if necessary). I have spoken to all of you about the incident (briefly outline what happened) xxx (wrongdoer name) has admitted their part. I remind you that you are here to discuss what happened, not the character of anyone involved. I will invite you all in turn to talk about how you and others may have been affected by what happened. This will help everyone understand what needs to be done to help put things right."

Start with perpetrator(s) – I would like to start by asking ......

- Can you tell us about what happened and how you became involved OR what happened?
- What happened next OR what else? (ask this until their story unfolds)
- What were you thinking at the time?
- What have your thoughts been since?
- How has this affected/upset you and others?
- What's been the hardest thing for you?

Turn to harmed person(s) – I would like to start by asking ......

- Can you tell us about what happened and how you became involved OR what happened?
- What happened next OR what else? (ask this until their story unfolds)
- What were you thinking at the time?
- What have your thoughts been since?
- How has this affected/upset you and others?
- What's been the hardest thing for you?

Then ask remaining participants in turn the same questions (if necessary, theme in views of those not present)

Go back to the perpetrator(s) – you have just heard how xxxx and others have been affected by what you did

- Do you all see that harm/upset that has been caused?
- Is there anything you want to say at this stage?
- Do you think that something needs to be done to repair that harm/put it right?

Go back to the harmed person - What do you think needs to happen?

Go back to the perpetrator(s) - What do you think of what xxxx has suggested?

Return to person harmed and then other supporters

- What do you think/feel about what has been said?
- What would you like to see come out of today's meeting?

Return to perpetrator(s) - What do you think/feel about what has been said?

Make agreement

Optional questions

- Would you do anything differently now?
- What other choices could you have made?
- What have you learned from the meeting?

Final invitations to speak – before I close the meeting is there anyone else who wishes to say or ask something?

Closing the meeting – Thank you for participating in this meeting, I hope that your time together has helped you deal with this matter.
